

MARY WARNER'S RUST PROOF CORSETS.

No. 363 is shown in the illustration. It's a dollar Corset and we know of nothing that will surpass it in style, fit and wear at that price. Made with dip hip and front with bias curves and perfectly adapted to the average form.

White Satteen, daintily trimmed, $1.00.

Three Warner Rust Proof Corsets for 50c each.

Low priced, but good qualities. One of our straight front and Princess Hip, trimmed with lace and ribbon and boned with steel.

The Warner people chose an appropriate name for one of their fifty-cent Corsets when they called it the JEWEL—made of tape—boned with steel and trimmed with Miller & Rhoads.

Named Dolly Varden.

The committee of the Mississippi table at the Confederate Bazaar have named the table Dolly Varden from the brilliant little opera in which Miss Lulu Glaser appeared at the Academy last night. Miss Glaser has been informed of the committee's decision and she will take the name of the opera into consideration and make the programme one delightful to others and most creditable to themselves.

The studio was pleasantly filled and guests were cordially welcomed by the hostesses and deftly served by the young ladies who assisted them.

Miss Barber in New York.

Miss Bessie T. Barber is in New York, where she has been since September, studying art. She is taking a thorough course in drawing under William St. John Harper, with lectures on perspective and picture composition by Frederick Delmon, president of the National Academy. Her classes for modeling in clay and artistic anatomy are taken with George T. Bröwster, and she has sketching under Charles V. Hawthorne.

Annual U. D. C. Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy was held in Lee Camp Hall at 4:30 o'clock last afternoon. An amount of business was transacted. The nominations of officers for the coming year resulted in the unanimous and enthusiastic election of Mrs. Norman V. Randolph as president of the Richmond Chapter. Daughters of the Confederacy for life. Mrs. Walter Christian was chosen as first vice-president, Mrs. Kate Winn as second vice-president, Mrs. B. A. Blanner recording secretary, Miss Sallie Davis as corresponding secretary and Mrs. Charles E. Bolling as treasurer.

Confederate Fair.

The costumes in which the young ladies taking part in the military drill at the Confederate Fair will appear will be completed in the next few days. The first drill will take place in the Masonic Temple Tuesday evening, March 17th.

The Bostock Benefit.

To-day week, March 19th, is the Bostock benefit for the Confederate Bazaar. It is believed that many people from Petersburg will come over on that day to attend the "benefit." All the bazaar tables are selling tickets and the result of the sale, a good sum will be put into the treasury of the bazaar as the result of the sale.

Women's Meetings.

The annual meeting of the Board of Managers of the Retreat for the Sick will be held to-day at noon.

The committee of the Texas table will meet at 10:30 A. M. to-day in Lee Camp Hall. The members are all asked to be present.

Personal Mention.

The Baltimore Morning Herald of yesterday had the following items of interest to Richmond people:

Miss Josephine Lannan gave a delightful dinner of six covers last evening at the Baltimore Country Club in honor of Miss Sophie White, of Richmond, Va., who is visiting her cousin, Miss Mary Hartman, at her home on West Franklin Street.

Miss Agnes Drewry, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. Frank DeFord, at her residence on Monument Street, for several weeks past, will leave to-day for her home at Richmond, Va. During her stay here Miss Drewry has made many friends and is greatly admired by Baltimore society folks.

Miss Anna H. Powers, who has been seriously ill since her return to the city in January, and very dangerously ill for several weeks, is now convalescent at the home of her sister, Mrs. George A. Barksdale.

The friends of Miss Ethel Carlton will be glad to learn that she continues quite sick at her home on Grove Avenue.

The announcement which fixes the date of the Graves-Harvie wedding for April 24th is unauthorized. The date has not yet been decided.

Miss Grace Reed, who has been the guest of Mrs. Laura M. Murray, in Danville, has returned home.

Mr. E. Lovenstein was a Richmond guest at the Pincus-Wachtel wedding in Norfolk last night.

Mrs. W. B. Cowles, of Roanoke, is under the treatment of Dr. Stuart McGuire in St. Luke's Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Bowe have moved into their new home, which has just been completed on West Grace Street.

Miss Fannie Hancock, of Charlottesville, will spend the next few weeks in Richmond.

Mr. Menaul Lankford, who has been ill with typhoid fever, is sufficiently recovered to return to his home in Norfolk.

Mrs. Clifford Nickles, of Philadelphia, who has been at the Jefferson Hotel for some weeks, has left with her sister, Mrs. Robert G. Scott, for Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Mosby have returned from New York, where Mr. Mosby went on a business trip.

Mr. Keene Laughlin, who is ill in Kentucky, has typhoid fever. His sickness is said not to be serious.

Miss Nannie Tabb.

In yesterday's Times-Dispatch appeared a special from Fredericksburg, telling of the ministrations of a trained nurse to the family of Mr. Amos Sullivan. The young lady in question was Miss Nannie Tabb, and not Miss Annie Tabb, as stated.

THIS PLAN PECULIAR

Blind Man Led by a One-Legged Boy.

BUT THEY SELL BIBLES

Rev. Dr. Donald Guthrie to Come Here Again and to Speak for the Bible Society.

It is a strange combination which the Bible Society of Virginia has engaged in the furtherance of its work in the country districts of Virginia—a man, who is blind, who is led around by a boy whose locomotive machinery is confined to one leg. Despite the peculiar situation in which he is placed, however, the man is meeting with great success in putting the Bible into many destitute homes in the State.

At a meeting of the Board of Managers of the society, held on Monday last, arrangements were made to continue the services of Mr. B. F. Rossan for the coming year. Mr. Rossan is a layman and is the only man in the Bible work who devotes his entire time to it. During the spring, summer and fall he visits from house to house selling Bibles, where possible, or giving them away where the people are too poor to purchase them.

About twenty years ago Mr. Rossan lost his eyesight while crossing the western plain. The girl of the sun on the plains made him blind totally. In his work now he is led around or driven in a buggy by a boy who has but one leg. The collector's affliction does not seem to hinder him to any great extent. He makes on an average of 300 visits a year. He has already traversed the counties of Pittsylvania, Culpeper, Albemarle, Orange, Madison, Greene, Henry and a part of Patrick.

OTHER BUSINESS.

Quite a mass of other business was transacted by the Board. The Rev. R. H. Marks, of Rocky Mount, was appointed collector. A donation of Bibles was made to a Methodist Mission Sunday-school near Seven Plains.

Great preparations are being made for the celebration of the anniversary of the society. The committee appointed to arrange for the occasion submitted a report to the Board showing progress. It has been decided that the celebration will occur on the second Sunday of May. All arrangements have not yet been perfected, but it is more than likely that the meeting will be held at the Second Presbyterian Church. The usual reports will be submitted.

The speaker for the occasion will be the Rev. Donald Guthrie, D. D., of Baltimore, formerly pastor of the Second Church. Dr. Guthrie is so well known here that he needs no introduction. His presence will be the distinct feature of the anniversary.

VISIT OF MR. McNUTT

Distinguished Young Minister Will Speak Several Times Here.

The approaching visit of the Rev. George L. McNutt, of New York, a young minister, who has made it a point actually to experience the problem of the workman in his different trades and callings, is of unusual interest to the people of Richmond. He will reach here to-morrow, and will spend three days under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

All of his lectures are free to both men and women. They will be as follows: Friday night, 8:30 P. M., Young Men's Christian Association hall, "What Workmen Ought to Expect." Saturday, 12 M., shop talk, "A Living or a Life?" Saturday afternoon, 5 o'clock P. M., to 8:30 P. M., Young Men's Christian Association hall, "The Joyous Church and the Churchless Boy."

Saturday, 8:30 P. M., Young Men's Christian Association hall, "The Dinner-Pail Man." Sunday, 3:30 P. M., Bijou Theatre, meet only, "Circus or Christ?" Sunday, 8 P. M., Union Station Methodist Church, "The Law of Nature and the Law of Christ."

ROSE AND FELL

Cotton Went Up Fifty Points and Dropped Again Below Yesterday's Close.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, March 11.—The cotton market early was active and higher on sensational reports regarding rising waters in important cotton producing regions in the cotton belt. Prices rapidly advanced, with May selling up to 16.02, which was a rise of fifty points from the low figures of yesterday. Later in the session prices broke badly under active realizing fears of tight money in Wall Street, clearing weather in the South and rumored pool liquidation. May dropped from 16.02 to 15.80.

The market closed weak, with prices at the lowest point of the day, net six to sixteen points off from the closing prices of yesterday.

WOMAN'S GENTLE NATURE CALLS FOR GENTLE TREATMENT

Delicately formed and gently reared, women will find, in all the seasons of their lives, as maidens, wives, or mothers, that the one simple, wholesome remedy which acts gently and pleasantly and naturally, and which may be used with truly beneficial effects, under any conditions, when the system needs a laxative, is—Syrup of Figs. It is well known to be a simple combination of the laxative and carminative principles of plants with pleasant, aromatic liquids, which are agreeable and refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system when its gentle cleansing is desired.

Many of the ills from which women suffer are of a transient nature and do not come from any organic trouble and it is pleasant to know that they yield so promptly to the beneficial effects of Syrup of Figs, but when anything more than a laxative is needed it is best to consult the family physician and to avoid the old-time cathartics and loudly advertised nostrums of the present day. When one needs only to remove the strain, the torpor, the congestion, or similar ills, which attend upon a constipated condition of the system, use the true and gentle remedy—Syrup of Figs—and enjoy freedom from the depression, the aches and pains, colds and headaches, which are due to inactivity of the bowels.

Only those who buy the genuine Syrup of Figs can hope to get its beneficial effects and as a guarantee of the excellence of the remedy the full name of the company—California Fig Syrup Co.—is printed on the front of every package and without it any preparation offered as Syrup of Figs is fraudulent and should be declined. To those who know the quality of this excellent laxative, the offer of any substitute, when Syrup of Figs is called for, is always resented by a transfer of patronage to some first-class drug establishment, where they do not recommend, nor sell false brands, nor imitation remedies. The genuine article may be bought of all reliable druggists everywhere at 50 cents per bottle.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

THE PUBLIC WILL BE INTERESTED

Will Want to See Who Votes for Campbell.

It is a noticeable fact that the denominational weeklies of the city have had practically nothing to say concerning the Campbell investigation by the Legislature. A week ago the Religious Herald made a guarded and conservative comment and this week it does the same thing again. It says:

"The Committee for Courts of Justice of the Virginia House of Delegates in their conduct of the Campbell case certainly guarded the rights of the accused judge with utmost care and conscientiousness. Indeed, so scrupulous and cautious were they to protect him in his legal rights and privileges that many supposed the committee would report in favor of acquittal. But the committee was composed of honorable and faithful men, and they could not agree that the man described in the testimony submitted to them was fit for judicial position and responsibility. The report was unanimously in favor of removal. The fact that some reached this conclusion by one route and some by another strengthens the case against Judge Campbell. Now there is talk of a new trial in the House and the Senate. Naturally the public will be interested in observing who of our legislators believe that the Amherst Judge must be 'vindicated.'"

THE INTERRUPTIONS OF THE TELEPHONE

The Central Presbyterian thinks the telephone, so far as this minister is concerned, is a divided joy.

"The interruptions of the telephone," it says this week, "are becoming a serious matter to the minister in his study. Interruption is bad enough, any thoughtful reading, but it is quite distressing when the pen is in motion. Can you not wait until you catch your pastor about his dinner hour? It is suggested that the minister have his 'phone hour' when he can talk to his people freely and hold a 'news' hour. Certainly the telephone is working some of our opportunities of intercourse and multiples life, saving time and strength."

CONDUCTING SERVICES AT SEVENTH ST. CHURCH

Rev. Carey E. Morgan is conducting services every night this week, except Saturday, at the Seventh Street Christian Church. Great interest is being manifested, large crowds attending. The services begin at 8:15 and close promptly at 9:15 o'clock.

SHAW IN NEW YORK

Denies That He is There in Connection With Financial Situation.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, March 11.—Secretary of the Treasury Shaw arrived here to-day from Washington. He visited the Treasury shortly before the opening hour and conferred briefly with acting Assistant Treasurer Davis and Cashier Marlow. The Secretary, it is believed, has come here to look into general financial conditions.

The Secretary also conferred with Collector of Customs Stranahan, concerning his visit to Secretary Shaw said: "I am not here especially to discuss money questions with the bankers. I have no opinion to express regarding the situation. The primary cause of my visit was to discuss certain details of customs with Collector Stranahan. There is no question of bona fide importation before me. In fact, I know of no need for it. I do not expect to see any bankers during my stay, which will probably be quite brief."

The Secretary intends to leave New York to-night for the South on a pleasure trip and return to Washington in a week.
